Auction Sale of Schnylkill Coal-A Reduction in the Price.

An auction sale of six thousand seven hundred tons of coal was made yesterday at the Exchange salesroom, Schuylkill Coal Company, the coal being from the Black Heath and Broad Mountain mines. The atten-dance was small and bidding dell, facts which may be accounted for by the difficulty of navigation at this time of the year, and the greater portion of the fuel needed being required for this market. Four thousand tons of steambeat coal were sold at $9 12½ a ton, but subsequently the rate fell to $7 50, at which figure the remainder was disposed of, after which two thousand seven hundred tons of broken coal were sold at $8 52½, another lot at $8 12½, and the closing lot $7 87½. The following exhibits the prices yesterday, compared with those realized at a sale of Scranton coal some two weeks since.

J., from whence to the city the freight is about seventy cents per ton, and the Skuyikill is delivered at the docks here. Taking into account this difference, the decline in the varieties of coal named has been in steamboat $1.40 per ton, and in grate coal $1.38 per ton; sufficient to show that the high prices of midwinter will hardly be revived again during the present season.

The Widow of the Late President Tyler

in Court.
SUPREME COURT—GENERAL TERM (BROOKLYN.) Before Judges Lott, Scrugham, Barnard and Gilbert. The case of Julia G. Tyler, appellant, vs. David L. Gardiner, respondent, came up for argument in this court yesterday, and for the high position which the parties occupy in society created considerable interest. The appellant in this case, the widow of the late ex-President Tyler, was in court. She is the sister of David L. Gardi-

Tyler, was in court. She is the sister of David L. Gardiner, the respondent in this case. Mrs. Tyler is a lady about thirty-five years of age, and quite prepossessing. She was dressed in a black crape bonnet, trimmed unside with white lace crape and outside with jet spangles; a tight-fitting black cloth basque with heavy shoulder straps of jet ornaments, and a black dress.

The sait is an appeal from the decision of the Surrogate of Richmod county, in the matter of the will of appealant's mother, Mrs. Gardiner, who died a short time since, leaving the principal part of her property to Mrs. Tyler. The will was entered for probate in the Surrogate & Court of Richmond county, where it was contested by David L. Gardiner, the respondent, who alleged that his mother had made the will in favor of Mrs. Tyler by undue influence on her part; and it was claimed by him, in proof of this and of the mental incapacity of his mother to make the will at the time it was made, that Mrs. Tyler, having persented her to receive a lawyer and now appeals.

The case was argued yesterday for Mrs. Tyler by Wm.

Evarts, of New York, and for Mr. Gardiner by G. T. lenks, of Brooklyn.

Ship Hamlet.—The latest accounts from the wreck of ship Hamlet, sahore on Nanset beach, state that the ressel remains in the same position as before reported. Atthough the weather for the season is quite favorable for the saving of the property, the wind being light from the cast-southeast, yet it was found to be too rough to-day to attempt to discharge the carge. The ship was being attripped of sails and spars. The ship and freight money were unsured in Boxion at the following offices:—Boyiston, $19,000; New England, $16,000; Equinable, $10,000; Mercented, $10,000.

American, $11,500; China, $7,000; Manufacturers, $5,000.

deraned Dec 6th, and was to be sold by auction.

Mank Ippo Kinnata, West, hence at Trieste 25th ult, reports having experienced heavy weather, and lost several sails, damaged rigging and upper works, and sprung a leak.

Bum Vincent, from London for Boston, before reported ashore on the Sow and Pigs Ledge, has a carge of fron, copper, sugar, giager, peas, porter, &c. In fifteen minutes after she struck, part of the keel came up alongside. On Triestay morning she had bliged, and could not be boarded on account of the heavy sea, and the optain sold her as she lay to Captain Benjamin Church. Most of the effects of the officers and crew were saved, and the second mate and seven of the crew arrived at New Badford, the captain and mate rematting on the island to book after the cargo. When 23 days out from Liverpool had a heavy gale, in which shipped a sea, tosing the galley, and the crow had been on short allowance. for 30 days. The cargo if romeigned to Thayer & Posbody, Boston.
